This new outfit has been sourced by us to replace the Hidersine Giovanni, discontinued by the Importer, and we are pleased to announce that it is in a different league, as regards performance. The price, whilst higher than the Giovanni used to be, is less than the replacement violin which Hidersine will announce in May/June, and far exceeds the specification for that instrument.

Unbelievably the Price for this Outfit is only £175 and is unique to JPB. Currently it is only available in Full Size, but this will be extended to cover all sizes down to 1/8 Size in the very near future.
